

Database schema

- Professor(ssn, profname, status, salary)
- Course(crscode, crsname, credits)
- Taught(crscode, semester, ssn)

Assumptions: (1) Each course has only one instructor in each semester; (2) all professors have different salaries; (3) all professors have different names; (4) all courses have different names; (5) status can take values from “Full”, “Associate”, and “Assistant”.

1. List the professors (ssn) who have never taught course no. C1.
2. Find those professors who have taught ‘C1’ but have never ‘C2’.
3. Find those professors who have taught both ‘C2’ and ‘C3’.
4. Find those professors who have never taught ‘C2’.
5. Find those professors who taught ‘C2’ and ‘C3’ in the same semester.
6. Find those professors who taught ‘C1’ or ‘C2’ but not both.
7. Find those courses that have never been taught.
8. Find those courses that have been taught at least in two semesters.
9. Find the names of professors who ever taught ‘C3’.
10. Find the names of Assistant Professors who ever taught ‘C2’.
11. Find the names of professors who ever taught at least two courses in one semester.
12. List all the course names that professor ‘Dr. Bhoomi Desai’ taught in Even sem of 2009.
13. List those courses that have been taught only by Assistant professors.